

Agenda

Women into Leadership Scotland 2017

Time	Session
09:00	Registration
09:45	Chair's welcome and introduction CHAIR: Fiona Eadie, Vice President, FDA
09:50	Opening address Helping female leaders succeed: building a culture of inclusion and respect SPEAKER: Francesca Osowska OBE, Director, Scotland Office
10:20	Plenary address Authentic Leadership: finding the courage to lead authentically SPEAKER: Angela Constance MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Communities, Social Security and Equalities
10:50	Networking and refreshment break
11:10	Plenary address Positioning yourself as a leader: tackling the cultural and practical obstacles to leadership SPEAKER: Elizabeth Gardiner, First Parliamentary Counsel and Permanent Secretary of the Government in Parliament Group in the Cabinet Office
11:40	<table border="0"> <tr> <td style="vertical-align: top;"> Breakout Session A Mastering vocal impact: communicating your ideas with clarity and confidence SPEAKER: Cath Baxter, Professional Voice and Public Speaking Coach & Head of Voice, Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts </td> <td style="vertical-align: top;"> Breakout Session B Women leading technology: embracing digital to further career opportunities SPEAKER: Sarah Davidson, Director General Communities, Scottish Government SPEAKER: Lisa Baron Broadhurst, Programme Director, Social Security Agency for Scotland SPEAKER: Sharon Moore, Scottish Women in Technology representative SPEAKER: Lynsey Campbell, Scottish Women in Technology representative </td> </tr> </table>	Breakout Session A Mastering vocal impact: communicating your ideas with clarity and confidence SPEAKER: Cath Baxter, Professional Voice and Public Speaking Coach & Head of Voice, Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts	Breakout Session B Women leading technology: embracing digital to further career opportunities SPEAKER: Sarah Davidson, Director General Communities, Scottish Government SPEAKER: Lisa Baron Broadhurst, Programme Director, Social Security Agency for Scotland SPEAKER: Sharon Moore, Scottish Women in Technology representative SPEAKER: Lynsey Campbell, Scottish Women in Technology representative
Breakout Session A Mastering vocal impact: communicating your ideas with clarity and confidence SPEAKER: Cath Baxter, Professional Voice and Public Speaking Coach & Head of Voice, Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts	Breakout Session B Women leading technology: embracing digital to further career opportunities SPEAKER: Sarah Davidson, Director General Communities, Scottish Government SPEAKER: Lisa Baron Broadhurst, Programme Director, Social Security Agency for Scotland SPEAKER: Sharon Moore, Scottish Women in Technology representative SPEAKER: Lynsey Campbell, Scottish Women in Technology representative
12:40	Lunch

Panel discussion

Leading a change in culture: where do we go from here?

SPEAKER: Leslie Evans, Permanent Secretary, Scottish Government

13:40 SPEAKER: Jillian Kay, Director, Local Government Policy, Department for Communities and Local Government

SPEAKER: Anna Fowlie, Chief Executive, Scottish Social Services Council

SPEAKER: Eleanor Emberson, Director of Financial Strategy, Scottish Government

14:50	Breakout Session C Interactive networking session: positive visibility SPEAKER: Cath Baxter, Professional Voice and Public Speaking Coach & Head of Voice, Mountview Academy of Theatre Arts	Breakout Session D How to be a resilient and inclusive leader SPEAKER: Jenny Campbell, Resilience researcher and Executive Coach; CEO of The Resilience Engine and lifetimeswork
15.50	Chair's closing remarks CHAIR: Fiona Eadie, Vice President, FDA
16.00	Networking drinks
17.00	Conference close

Source URL: <http://womenintoleadershipsotland.co.uk/agenda>